Chairs: Gregory Bouchaud & Muriel Pichavant

09:15-10:00 (Opening lecture) - From IL-33 to TL1A: role of alarmin cytokines in the initiation of allergic airway inflammation - Jean-Philippe Girard (IPBS, Toulouse, France)

10:00-10:35 IL-20 cytokines: Friends or foes in chronic airway diseases - Muriel Pichavant (Institut Pasteur Lille, France)

10:35-11:10 Does the Gut Microbiome mediate the impact of Lifestyle on metabolic Phenotypes? - Karine Clément (Sorbonne University, Paris, France)

11:10-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-12:40 Session 2: New insights into the roles of basophils

Chairs: Gaël Ménasché & Nicolas Charles

11:30-12:05 Basophils as Gatekeepers: Amplifying Asthma Through IL-33-Driven Th2 Infiltration - Martijn Schuijs (VIB, Gent, Belgium)

12:05-12:40 Basophils in the control of humoral autoimmunity - Nicolas Charles (CRI, Paris, France)

12:40-13:40 Lunch break

13:40-15:25 Session 3: Immune mechanisms of allergic diseases

Chairs: Coraline Radermecker & Laurent Reber

13:40-14:15 Peripheral neuroimmune interactions in allergic inflammation - Nicolas Gaudenzio (INFINITY, Toulouse, France)

14:15-14:50 Mast cell-mediated immunosurveillance of the blood stream - Axel Roers (Institute of Immunology, Heidelberg, Germany)

14:50-15:25 Billions of neutrophils: Exploring the multiple facets of neutrophils in lung homeostasis and allergic diseases - Coraline Radermecker (GIGA, Liege, Belgium)

15:25-15:45 Coffee break

15:45-16:55 Session 4: Novel targets in allergic diseases

Chairs: Isabella Annesi-Maesano & Joana Vitte

15:45-16:10 CCL2 chemokine follows a complex bitemporal secretion pattern for local attraction during IgE-mediated mast cell activation - Eduardo Montero (CRI, Paris, France)

16:10-16:55 (Closing lecture) - Artificial intelligence and biomarker-driven approaches in developing novel therapeutics for allergic diseases - Mohamed Shamji (Imperial College London, UK)

16:55-17:00 Concluding remarks Virginie Doyen (Yvoir, Belgium) & Frédéric Bérard (Lyon, France)
